Important Notice:

"Your account is yours alone – Don't trade it for easy money" Criminal syndicates try to lure customers into selling or lending their bank accounts in return for a profit. These "stooge accounts" are subsequently used to receive/laundry fraudulent payments or other criminal proceeds. Avoid selling or lending accounts to other persons. 2: Limit account access. Never allow unauthorized persons to access, operate or control your account. 3: Exercise caution when executing transactions. When asked to process funds from an unknown origin, actively decline and verify the legitimacy through official channels. 4: If you suspect you have been misled into receiving or transferring funds on behalf of others, please contact our Customer Service Hotline at (852) 2818 0282 and report the incident to the Bank and to the Police without delay. 5: Remind families and friends to stay vigilant against deception.
